

A WORD FROM CHARLIE

It's hard for me to believe, but I have visited and returned from Africa (Ghana) twice since the last newsletter! Such is the fast pace of this past summer. But what a rewarding summer it was!

In our first trip we partnered with Fred Amoah-Darko of Ambassadors for Christ International. Besides a church conference and Sunday services, we trained church leaders in three cities. In the first two cities we graduated 30 leaders from our four-year training program. These pastors are now grounded in grace and other helpful knowledge. The third city was a new group of leaders who now want us to bring the full training program. We trained 100 select leaders in all.

The second trip was by invitation from Challenge Enterprises which is a well-established evangelism and literature ministry throughout Ghana. I spoke on ministerial integrity and the gospel to 1200 pastors in two cities. The response was great and many hearts and doors were opened for the gospel of grace. Look inside for pictures and testimonies.

God answered our prayers with the finances needed to give these pastors a copy of my latest book, Simply by Grace. The decision to do this had to be made earlier in the year when funds were not present. But the GraceLife board had the faith to commit the books, and God did the rest!

Now I am planning for a busy fall schedule and a January/February team mission to India. In all of this, I do not cease to thank God for your partnership and prayers in these last days of opportunity for the gospel.

Until all hear,

Charlie Bing

Up Close: Double Blessings in Ghana

First Team Mission, July 9-22:

Dr. Roger Fankhauser:

On this, my fourth visit to Ghana, I had the privilege of watching 30 of our students graduate. It was exciting to hear their responses as we questioned some of them about what they had learned. They understand the clear gospel of grace! The students engage in the class, and are hungry to learn more of the word. . . If the Lord allows, I will return.

I am grateful to our most high God for bringing me so far. In fact, if I examine myself and see how far the Lord through the facilitators has brought me, I don't even know how to express my gratitude towards them. All that I can say is that, may the good Lord, the giver of all gifts, continue to bless them for the effort, time, and knowledge they have imparted to us.

Pastor Dixon Amoah:

Pastor L. D. Addi:

When I started the course four years back, hardly did I think I would finish successfully since it was not all that easy to grasp some of the topics. I therefore submitted the fear to Christ, and since then doors of abilities opened, and to the glory of God, four years has appeared to me like two years with ease. The glory is to the One who has called me into this vineyard.

Second Mission, August 26-September 10:

Rich Keller:

It has been an exciting time as Charlie shares the grace message with hundreds of pastors at conferences and Ghanaians in local churches. We quickly discovered there is a great need for a clear message and I have enjoyed sharing the gospel with several locals. I am blessed beyond measure as I am disciplined by Charlie and learn real world practical application. I look forward to future ministry in Ghana as the need is great but the workers are few.

Ray Young:

Charlie has been refreshingly clear and consistent in delivering the gospel. In addition to his messages, it is exciting to see each pastor get the book Simply by Grace. My prayer is that hearts and minds of the pastors will be changed as each who listened to Charlie preach will have his lectures reinforced by the book. Charlie is a refreshing voice of clarity in a world of confusion over the gospel.

Encouraging Words

I want to publish the book Simply by Grace into Burmese which is the common language used in Myanmar. Some Christian leaders do not understand the doctrine of grace, therefore, they force some people to try to work for their salvation. So I believe this book will defend and show the truth to them. . . Please pray for the printing cost and please pray for the lost souls in Myanmar.
